Interment of Mr. Paten, Who Was Killed by a Fall.

The Columbias Give a Dance - Real Estate Transactions-Crop Pros-

The remains of Mr. John Paten, the old gentleman who was thrown from the small bridge that spans Pimmet Run near the Virginia end of the Chain bridge, to the rocks below and killed, through the colliding of his dog cart with the country wagon of Mrs. Sarah Mutersbaugh, a neighbor, have been interred at Falls Church. The report that Mrs. Mutersbaugh had been arrested and confined pending the decision of the coroner's jury was denied this morning by a resident of her vicinity, who stated that there were sufficient witnesses to the tragic affair to clearly prove that it was purely accidental. Mrs. Mutersbaugh, who has relatives in Fickling lots 168, 169 and 170 of Ashford and others' subdivision of part of Cooke Park in square 112, and John P. Clark sold to J. F. James for $4,500 lots 1 to 12 inclusive of block 2, of Clark and Cottrell's sub of the tract known as Whitehaven. The old Trunnel homestead on 34th street between P and Q was yesterday put up at auction by order of the trustees, J. Carter Marbury and Hugh T. Taggart, who have the affairs of some of the heirs in charge. Bidding stopped at 52 cents per square foot and the property was withdrawn. There are 10,885 square feet in the place, improved by an old-fashioned rough coated dwelling, probably 100 years old. The present occupant, Mr. Charles H. Trunnel, has

In Montgomery, Alexandria and Fairfax counties the farmers have finished their corn cutting and will begin this week the seeding of wheat. The ground is said to August 15. e in good condition and the weather very favorable. It's a little early for the seeding of wheat, but the agriculturists fear that the injurious Hessian fly will cause them trouble if they delay it until a warm spell is encountered.

The tobacco harvest is about two-thirds over, late peaches are fairly good and corn is in a poor condition, much of it having been blown down.

It has been publicly stated by silver men that the action of Mr. Preston with relation to the purchase of silver is in violation of law, and that he should be impeached for it. Them-Silver Men Gratified. All is fair sailing with the city democracy, Just before the Senate went into executive session yesterday there was a very incounty. The city committee, as already reported in The Star, has agreed that whoever receives a plurality as a nominee of the city primary for delegate to the legislature shall be allowed to appoint the twenty delegates which are to meet the five delegates from the county in convention and select a nominee. To this many county democrats object. They say it gives the county no show and compels the county to confirm the action of a plurality of the city democrats. into an animated discussion, which barred the charge that the stage of filibustering had been reached, and the further fact that Mr. Chandler occupied an entirely independent attitude in the contest and might be regarded as friendly to the silver men, inasmuch as he took their side of the case in this particular discussion.

Mr. Teller occupied the floor, and an arcrats. They say it is like the feast to which the crane invited the fox, where the food was served in a long-necked bottle so the crane with his long neck could put his bill Alexandria for goods furnished the hotel by Mr. Isaac Elchberg of this city.

The corporation court has heard argument in the Raub-Otterback case and the court has reserved its judgment. The suit of Frey agt. Rogers has been dismissed, all claims being satisfied. The court at its opening today took up the case of Spittle agt. Washington Southern Railway Comistration to redeem treasury notes in gold that had caused the gold to come back.

Mr. Teller started to point out how this was impossible, when Mr. Chandler asked Mr. Teller started to point out how this was impossible, when Mr. Chandler asked permission to answer Mr. Palmer, and did so by asking another question. He asked if it were not a fact that the declaration of policy made by Mr. Cleveland was made public before the gold had gone out of the country at all; if the occasion of that declaration had not been an intimation from Mr. Carlisle that if some of the banks holding gold did not let it out the coin certificates would have to be redeemed in silver.

Mr. Palmer replied that he could not answer this question, and that the object of his inquiry was to get more light and not to argue that Mr. Cleveland's declaration had actually brought the gold back. In fact, he did not know that Mr. Cleveland had actually authorized the declaration of his policy, which had been printed. Mr. Chandler retorted that it was a fact that this announcement of policy had been made some time before the gold had begun to go out of the country, and added that he was informed that Mr. Carlisle had written a letter to the subtreasurer in New York directing him to redeem coin certificates in silver. This order, he said, had been recall-without the process of stock.

In the meantime partner Williams asked for explanations, and, not getting any, ordered the law firm of Hall, Cross & Thorn of which John A. Hall, attorney general for Quebec, is senior partner, to ask for an accounting. Granger leftantly told them to go ahead, as he had two years' supply of fluid on hand.

The lawyers made some inquiries, and the result was the seizure, by Mr. Ambrasse, Dominion appraiser, of the books belonging to the company. A sworn affidavit was made to Mr. Ambrasse that Mr. Granger was getting a fluid known as the "fixing" fluid from Dr. C. Auer of Germany, at fix a kilo, while the customs were passing this fluid at a supposed value of fl &s per kilo.

The directors' meeting was a very morny one. Three resolutions was passed, one a letter to the subtreasurer in New York directions in the fluid from Dr. C. Auer The police of the second precinct yesterday arrested a young colored man named Thomas Johnson on suspicion of being the individual who committed or attempted to commit an assault on Alice Mariow, a young colored girl, on Lincoln avenue Mon-day night, as published in yesterday's Star, and the girl identified him as the man. The case was heard in Judge Miller's court today, and the prisoner was held for the action of the grand jury. In default of $1,000 bail the prisoner was committed. W. B. Mr. Chandlers Question Mr. McPherson raised some question as to the accuracy of this understanding of the case, and Mr. Chandler asked if he did not know that such a letter had been written by Mr. Carlisle.

Death of Mr. Lewis Ford.

Mr. Lewis Ford of the firm of Duckett & Ford, real estate brokers of this city, died today at his home in Hyattsville. Mr. Ford was one of the pioneer residents of that flourishing town, having come there when it was first laid out. He carried on business here, and had an acquaintance in both cities. A large circle of friends and acquaintances will mourn his death. The funeral services will be held tomorrow morning at 19 o'clock at St. Jerome's Church, where requiem high mass will be celebrated. Mr. McPherson disclaimed any such knowledge, and rather intimated a Goubt as to Mr. Carlisle or Mr. Cleveland's ever having made any declaration of policy.

Mr. Chandler then suggested that if the declaration of policy were authorized, and that if it had any influence upon the movement of gold, it must have been to cause its exportation and the panic, since both the exportation and the panic followed the statements purporting to emanate from the the exportation and the panic followed the statements purporting to emanate from the Secretary of the Treasury and the President. The assembly is an important gathering and has been busily occupied in the consideration of laws for the government of councils, hearing the reports of committees and the address of the grand master. This afternoon at 4 o'clock there is to be a public meeting at Metropolitan A. M. E. Church, at which addresses and orations will be delivered by the grand officers.

Called on the President. Yesterday afternoon the delegates called upon the President by appointment. They were received in the east room and were presented individually by the grand secre-tary, Mr. Chas. H. Brooks of Philadelphia. Afterward the members reconvened and elected the following officers: W. G. M., Dr. Liberia Cornish of Baltimore: deputy G. M. James W. Jones of Washington; secretary, L. R. Price of New Orleans; assistant, J. R. F. Browne; guardian, S. N. Rankin of Chicago; warden, John H. Wilson; chap-lain, Joseph L. Turner.

The Parade. The officers of the parade this afternoon were as follows: Chief marshal, Wm. P. Gray; Geo. W. Cabaniss, left aid; C. B. Cain, right aid; chief of staff, J. O. Holmes; chief of first

MONTREAL'S BIG SENSATION.

The Auer Light Company and How Its Stockholders Were Swindled. The trouble of the Auer Light Company is turning out to be one of the biggest se sations in mercantile circles which has shaken Montreal for years. A hurried emergency meeting of the board of directors was called Tuesday afternoon, and it was decided to have the affairs of the company wound up at once. The result it is feared will be that hundreds of pool stockholders will be left in the lurch.

The whole bubble, it appears, was burs sting running debate between Teller by the action of the English partner of and Chandler on one hand and McPherson E. D. Granger, the manager of the com and Palmer on the other. The chief sig- pany. Granger halled from St. Louis, and nificance of the situation developed by the is said to be well known in the promine debate was the fact that the repeal men, whose purpose is to let the talking be all done on the silver side, so as to let the onus of delay rest on them, were drawn into an animated discussion, which barred the charge that the start of the invention of Dr. Auer, and after completing negotiations with that gentleman, whom he visited in Germany, induced Mr. Frederick de Lafontaine Williams of London, Eng., to go in with him as a partner.

in this particular discussion.

Mr. Teller occupied the floor, and an argument he presented was that as the gold was coming back into this country, notwithstanding that the Sherman law had not been repealed, it could not be claimed that the existence of that law had driven the gold out in the first instance.

The Deduction Not Warranted.

This brought Mr. McPherson to his feet for a question, and he made an argument of about ten minutes to show that this deduction was not warranted. Mr. Palmer then broke in with a question if it was not been treasury notes in gold that had caused the gold to come back. Mr. Teller started to point out how this was impossible, when Mr. Chandler asked
